WCA COVERAGE UNDER ORCKA CLUB INSURANCE LIABILITY POLICY

The WCA is pleased to be able to provide liability insurance that protects members, outings organizers, officers, and directors for up to $5,000,000 per occurrence in the event of legal actions arising out of sanctioned club activities.

Sanctioned activities include canoeing, kayaking, hiking, cross-country skiing and camping as well as social events such as the Fall Meeting.

Note that it does not include such outdoor activities as cycling, rafting, tubing, alpine skiing or snowboarding, ziplining, high and low rope work, and rock climbing.

Coverage also excludes actions alleging loss from infection by COVID-19. For full details, consult the section on information for organizers (Club Activities>Organizer Resources).
